College of Arts
Bob Cole Conservatory of Music

The Bob Cole Conservatory of Music (BCCM) seeks an innovative colleague in wind band who can offer courses in conducting, and conduct the Symphonic Band, Concert Band, and Beach Band. The BCCM wind bands include over 200 students involving music majors and non-majors from across the campus. This is a highly visible position in the Conservatory that brings acclaim and builds our reputation as a top-tier music program.

The successful applicant will: have experience and demonstrated success in conducting university and/or premier high school instrumental ensembles and athletic bands; demonstrate a record of equitable and diverse programming which includes literature by traditionally marginalized or underrepresented composers; maintain and develop student recruitment systems necessary for an established and expanding university bands program; communicate effectively with an ethnically and culturally diverse campus community. Additional consideration is given to those with demonstrated success as an instrumental music arranger for athletic bands.

Required Qualifications:

- Masters (M.M.) in Instrumental Conducting or related field
- Minimum of three years of successful collegiate or premier high school teaching experience with concert bands and athletic bands
- Must be authorized to work in the United States for the duration of employment without assistance from the institution
- Demonstrated potential for teaching excellence and prioritization of diversity, equity and inclusion as core values within instrumental conducting and repertoire selection
- Demonstrated commitment to working successfully with a diverse student population

Preferred Qualifications:

- Doctoral degree (DMA), or ABD in instrumental conductor or related field
- Demonstrated success as a wind band and athletic band conductor at the university level
- Demonstrated success in programming literature that embraces diversity, equity and inclusion as core values in wind band
- Demonstrated administrative skills, such as managing instrument inventory, working within the parameters of a budget, and assisting with logistical matters of large ensemble music events

- Demonstrated success as a music arranger that embraces diversity, equity and inclusion
- Experience working successfully with populations demographically and socioeconomically similar to the CSULB student body

Duties:

- Teach MUS 100B/300B/500B Symphonic Band
- Teach MUS 100A/300A/500A and Conduct Concert Band
- Conduct Beach Athletic Band
- Teach MUS 325B/425 Instrumental Conducting
- Additional courses as assigned or within the candidate's specialty
- Organizing and overseeing music festivals, concerts and etc. sponsored by bands area
