Faculty Fee Waiver Program

[Unit 3]

Eligible faculty unit employees may be granted approval to enroll at any CSU campus under the Faculty Fee Waiver Program for two (2) courses or six (6) units, whichever is greater, per term, excluding the doctoral program (Ed.D.). Units for the doctoral program are determined independently based on program course offerings. Please review Article 26, CSU-CFA Collective Bargaining Agreement for further information at:

www.calstate.edu/LaborRel/Contracts_HTML/CFA_CONTRACT/2012-2014/

Faculty Eligibility (Active Employee)

- Tenured and Probationary faculty unit employees
- Temporary faculty unit employees with a three (3) Academic Year (AY) Contract
- Full-Time Management Personnel Plan
- Coaches with at least six (6) consecutive years of service in the department

Transfer of Eligibility

Faculty eligible for participation in the Fee Waiver Program may transfer their existing Fee Waiver benefit entitlement to a spouse, dependent child, or domestic partner under certain conditions.

- Eligibility may be transferred to a spouse OR a dependent child OR domestic partner.
["Dependent Child" defined: (1) your child or stepchild under age 25 who has never been married; (2) a child living with you in a parent-child relationship who is economically dependent upon you, under age 25, and has never been married; (3) your child or stepchild age 25 or above who is incapable of self-support due to a disability which existed prior to age 25"].
- Fee waiver benefits may be transferred to one person only, regardless of whether that individual uses the full entitlement of six units. One spouse or one child or domestic partner who uses less than three units of entitlement exhausts the entire entitlement for that semester.
- If both parents are eligible faculty, each parent may transfer his/her fee waiver benefit to the same eligible dependent or to two different eligible dependents.

Conditions of Fee Waiver

- Participant must be matriculated toward a degree and the course(s) enrolled in on a fee-waiver basis must be for credit toward completion of that degree's requirement. Participating employee (self) in a job-related courses shall relate to the current assignment that will benefit the campus.
- Participant taking classes leading to the attainment of a teaching credential is also eligible for fee waiver enrollment.
- The fee waiver is applicable to state-supported (general fund) courses ONLY. The benefit does not apply to non-resident tuition fees or self-support programs offered through extended education.
- Campus administration must determine that space is available in a particular class for the dependent.

Continued Eligibility

- Normal academic standards must be maintained in order to continue participating in the fee waiver program.
- Must have a valid active employment/contract.

Fees:

Faculty (Self) - The following fees are reduced to $1.00: Associated Student Body Fee, University Union Fee, and Health Facilities Fee

Spouse/Dependent-Child/Domestic Partner: The following fees shall not be waived: Student Body Fee, University Union Fee, and Health Facilities Fee. [A spouse, dependent child, or domestic partner taking CSU courses in addition to fee waiver courses shall pay the difference between the part-time State University Fee and the full-time State University Fee.]

READ - IMPORTANT: Tax Issues Related To Enrollment

Faculty unit employees, spouses/dependent child/domestic partners may enroll in undergraduate and graduate level courses. Educational assistance payments for fee waiver participants taking graduate level courses are considered taxable income. The taxes will be deducted out of your pay warrant. All undergraduate and graduate level coursework taken by an employee's dependent, spouse, or domestic partner through the Fee Waiver Program is also taxable. [Internal Revenue Code (IRC Sections 117(d), 127, and 132(d))]. Please contact your tax specialist or accountant for further information.
