How does your student's enrollment affect aid and costs?

- Financial aid is awarded based on an assumption of full-time enrollment, or 12 units
 - Enrolling in at least 12 units each semester is a good start to a 4-year degree
- Many aid programs, including Pell, are awarded based on enrollment

Example: Enrolled in 12 units

Tuition:	$2,871
Campus fees:	$ 623
	$3,494
State University Grant:	-$2,871

Common Questions

If I receive financial aid, do I need to pay by my assigned due date?

- If a student receives enough financial aid to cover all tuition and fees, that student DOES NOT need to pay by the assigned due date. A student MUST have accepted financial aid reflected on their account.

I don't receive enough financial aid to cover all of my fees. When do I need to pay my portion?

- Students should pay their portion of fees by their assigned due date on MyCSULB.

Common Questions

I can't pay my balance all at once, do you have payment options?

- Yes, we offer installment plans. Sign up is online through MyCSULB. Installment plans are available through the 4th week of the semester, BUT students must enroll before their assigned payment deadline and adhere to their assigned due dates.

How do I get my aid to pay my fees?

- We do that for you! Financial aid will disburse directly to the student's account to pay tuition, fees, and housing. Student Financial Services then refunds the student any excess aid. Students should sign up for e-refund ahead of time to receive funds before classes begin.

Common Questions

What if my circumstances have changed since submitting our financial aid application?

- We want to make sure that your family's financial aid eligibility matches up with your ability to contribute to your student's education. If your family's financial situation has changed, you can submit an Income Appeal form (ES Forms website) for review. You can also contact our office to talk over your family's scenario.

What if we didn't qualify for any grant aid?

- You should contact our office so that a financial aid staff member can review your student's application with you. We can also review your options, potentially including loans; scholarships; and appealing your family's eligibility for aid.
