

COLLEGE OF THE ARTS (COTA)

Liaison: Rosa Trujillo, Assistant Director of Career Education & Counseling

The Career Development Center continued to partner with College of the Arts through a career readiness series that supported Art History Department faculty, Mariah Proctor. The center provided tailored workshops that addressed how Art History students could use CDC services and explore different careers using their degree. COTA liaison, Rosa Trujillo, dived in to empower our Art History majors by connecting transferable skills that are desired in creative and non-creative industries. As a result of this collaboration, students visited the center for services to further explore careers using their degree.
