[Narrator]

The most rewarding part of looking back, of reflecting on our past, is seeing how far we've come, together.

The Beach legacy and our boundless hopes for future decades are a testament to the dedication, scholarship, and optimism that have been part of this community for 75 years.

It's clear that those who came before us had bold dreams, just like we have today.

Big dreams that, as the calendar year ends, we build upon as we look forward to what's ahead.

During this special time of year, may you feel the gratitude and joy of being part of this special community, and take pride that you are so central to the place Where California Dreams.
