

CULTURAL RESOURCE CENTERS

LATINX RESOURCE CENTER

• LOCATION: FO4-262

The Latinx Resource Center's goal is to provide resources that educate students about the many historical and cultural backgrounds that make up the Chicanx & Latinx population. This also includes community organizing and the promotion and education of social movements and political issues that continue to affect Chicanxs and Latinxs today.

BLACK RESOURCE CENTER

• LOCATION: FO4-274

The mission of the Black Resource Center is to provide a facility for Black/African students, staff, and faculty to come together in a secure, supportive, well-maintained, functional, and Black/African-centered environment. The focus of the Center is to benefit the cultural growth and development of the CSULB Black/African community.

PUVUNGNA RESOURCE CENTER

• LOCATION: USU - SUITE 310

The Puvungna Resource Center serves to create an atmosphere of special support, cultural enrichment, academic retention, and most importantly, a sense of community for Native American/American Indian/Alaska Native students. The Center operates to provide academic and cultural resources for the CSULB Native American/American Indian/Alaska Native communities.

ASIAN AND PACIFIC ISLANDER RESOURCE CENTER

• LOCATION: FO4, ROOM 276

The mission of the Asian American and Pacific Islander Resource Center is to provide a facility for Asian American and Pacific Islander students, organizations, faculty and staff to come together as a community. Additionally, the Asian American and Pacific Islander Resource Center serves to educate and inform the campus-wide community of Asian and Pacific Islander cultures, histories, and social issues.
