

Do you have an interest or passion for TK-12 teaching?

Elevate your academic degree with a minor in Education!

Are you considering earning a teaching credential one day?

EQUITY & EDUCATION STUDIES MINOR

LIBERAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT

SIGN UP TODAY

The Education Studies minor allows students from outside the College of Education to explore equity issues in education and gain a deeper understanding of today's TK-12 schools.

Students also have the opportunity to complete at least one prerequisite course for a chosen credential program for a more seamless transition from undergraduate to post-baccalaureate status. The minor also provides opportunities for students to observe in K-12 classrooms.

Requirements (15 units):

- LST 310: Education Equity & Justice (3 units)
- LST 320: Intersectionality in Education (3 units)
- Plus one clinical practice course (3 units) in their chosen credential pathway (Education Specialist, Multiple Subjects, Single Subject)
- Six units of special topics courses

For more information:

Email a Liberal Studies advisor: CED-LibSt@csulb.edu

Visit our website: csulb.edu/liberalstudies or

Stop by the Student Success Advising Center in EED-32

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION