POLITICAL SCIENCE B.A.

Global Politics Requirements as of Fall 2019 39 units required

Global Politics

This concentration combines international relations and comparative politics, examining the ideas, movements, and structures that shape the global community. Students examine the interactions among nations, as well as the politics of countries other than the U.S. The emphasis is on war, foreign policy, democratization, nationalism, and globalization. The global politics concentration is a point of departure for graduate or law school, and for careers in the federal government, international development, global non-profits, humanitarian advocacy groups, finance, business, law, federal government contractors of all kinds, military, education, clean energy and the environment.
